

A FAMILY FIRST was chalked up by descendants of the late John and Mary Gill of Escatawpa, when they gathered for a family reunion this summer in DeQuincy, La. With 73 family members present, this was the first occasion when all 10 Gill children were together at one time.

The far-flung family of Mr. Johnnie and Miss Mamie, as they were known to their friends and neighbors, had never before managed to gather for a celebration which included all branches of the family tree.

Attending from Jackson County were Quinton and Eva Gill, and Clinton and Bonnie Gill, all of Escatawpa; Carl and Mabel Gill of Moss Point; Peggy Gill of Pascagoula, and Robert Gill and Don Gill, both of the Franklin Creek Community.

Quinton, Clinton, Carl and Robert joined their brothers and sisters in posing for historic family portraits, which caught for all time the celebration. Also in the photos were Susie Gill Davis and Aulred Gill, both of Panama City, Fla.; Jesse Gill of DeQuincey; Alton Gill of Spokane, Wash.; John Gill of Danbury, Conn., and Adolph Gill of Premont, Texas.

Besides the Mississippi relatives attending, family members came from Florida, Texas, Connecticut, Alabama, Nevada, Washington and Hong Kong for the occasion.

I-CORINTHIANS 15:19-26, 55 - "If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. But now is Christ risen from the dead, and became the firstfruits of them that slept. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order. Christ the firstfruits, afterwards they that are Christ's at his coming".

"Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the Kingdom of God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and all power. For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death ... O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory"?

JULY 1, 1986

You are not dead - Life has but set you free!
Your years of life were like a lovely song;
The last sweet poignant note of which held long,
Passed into silence while we listened.

We who loved you - Listened still expectantly,
And we about you whom you moved among
Would feel that grief for you were surely wrong,
You have not passed beyond where we can see.

For us who knew you - Dread the age is past;
You took life tiptoe to the very last,
It never lost for you its lovely look,
You kept your interest in its thrilling book.

To you - Death came no conqueror,
In the end - You merely smiled
To greet another friend.

----- Roselle Mercier Montgomery

"O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?"

We have received comments from family members who haven't had the privilege to meet with us at our family reunions that has informed me they have not received a copy of the family record in the past and would like to receive a copy. This we don't understand as we have always printed enough copies for at least the adult members of the family and the independent each of established families, and we have encouraged those present at our reunions to take enough copies and distribute them among those not present.

This year we are asking those of the second generation member of the family to please see that copies are distributed among your own branch of the family as follows:

JOHN 14:1-7 - "Let not your hearts be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know ... I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also; and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him"

PSALMS 23 - "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever".

May God continue to bless each of us - and may each of you get as much enjoyment from this family record as I had in compiling it and bringing it up to date for this occasion.

OUR LOVE ALWAYS -

There is no death! The stars go down
To rise upon some other shore
And bright in heaven's jeweled crown
They shine forevermore.

There is no death! The forest leaves
Convert to life the viewless air
The rocks disorganize to feed
The hungry moss they bear.

There is no death! The dust we tread
Shall change beneath the summer's showers
To golden grain, or mellow fruit or rainbow tinted flowers.

And ever near us, though unseen
The dear immortal spirits tread
For all the boundless universe
Is life - There is no death.

"If thou expect death as a friend, prepare to entertain it; If as an enemy, prepare to overcome it; Death has no advantage except as it comes as a stranger"

Kirtland Temple – “House of the Lord”

In December 1832 Joseph Smith, Jr., gave inspired counsel to build a house to God's glory, at Kirtland, Ohio:

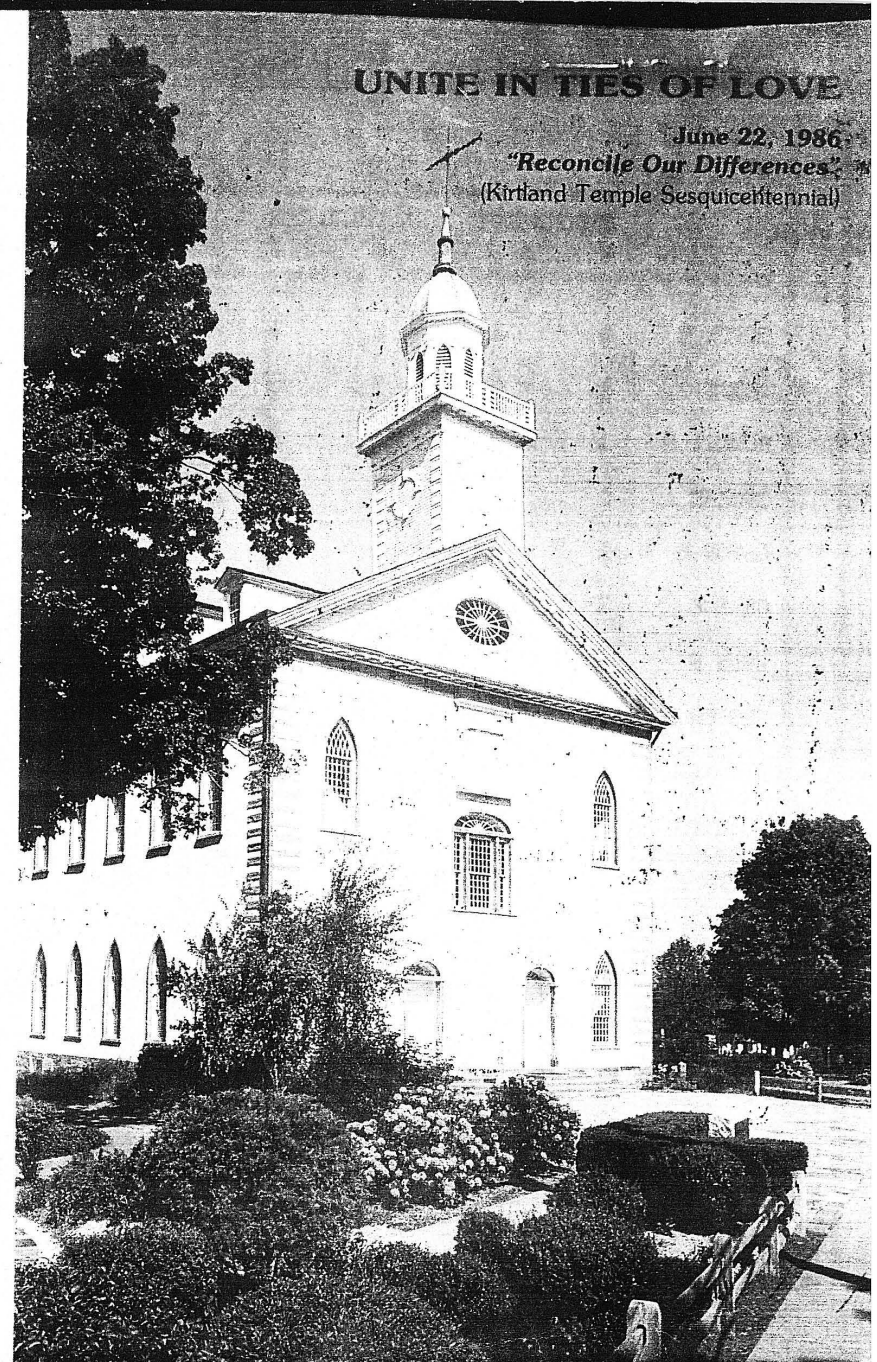

Organize yourselves; prepare every needful thing, and establish a house, even a house of prayer, a house of fasting, a house of faith, a house of learning, a house of glory, a house of order, a house of God. — Doctrine and Covenants 85:36b

Section 91:1b, 2 (May 1833) described the dimensions and uses of this house. Construction was begun in June, and on July 23 church leaders laid the four cornerstones. This temple expressed architecturally the church's sense of identity and mission, with its unique configuration of Aaronic and Melchisedec pulpits in the two main chambers. The pews on the second floor contain writing desks for education, e.g., the “School of the Apostles,” and the “School of the Elders.” The lower chamber was intended largely for public worship. Priesthood quorums and other groups met in the five rooms of the third floor.

Carpenters, stonemasons, glaziers, painters, plasterers, and wood-carvers gave talent and time to the construction of the temple. Women sewed and mended the workers' clothing and cooked their meals. Youth worked as laborers alongside their leaders. Families donated fine china and crystal to be crushed and mixed into the final exterior plaster, producing a glistening effect. The construction was completed and the dedication took place on March 27, 1836.

This year marks the 150th anniversary of Kirtland Temple's dedication. We can rejoice in this achievement of the founders of our Restoration faith.
